This product is aimed at all those who are looking to leave the city, stress and enjoy the tranquility of living in the beautiful and familiar town of Alella, on the Maresme coast, just 15 km from Barcelona. House with history and personality in the center of town of 178m2.

It is a rustic-style house originally from 1847 with a farmhouse-style facade, but completely renovated in colonial style as you will see below. When we open the door of the neighborhood, we appreciate its large terrace, at the level of the ground floor of the house. A large hall with stairs in front, a double room with a full bathroom, a living room and a large kitchen welcome us. In the upper part, we enjoy 3 spacious rooms with wardrobes (a total of 4 rooms in the property and two more bathrooms (total of 3 bathrooms), one of them is part of the main suite.
